Public Statement on Lobbying Activities

Governance & Collective Action · Criterion GACA1.1 · B Corp Certification (V2 standards)

Dora Bruschi 1934 S.r.l. makes this public statement regarding its conduct in relation to lobbying activities, in accordance with criterion GACA1.1 of the B Corp standards.

1. The Company does not engage in lobbying, understood as the representation of interests aimed at influencing legislative, regulatory or policy decisions by institutions and public decision-makers, either directly or through third parties acting on its behalf.

2. The Company does not make political contributions, whether financial or in kind, to political parties, committees, candidates or organisations associated with them.

3. Consistency with the Code of Ethics. This conduct is consistent with the Company's Code of Ethics, which requires fairness and transparency and prohibits the granting of improper benefits.

4. Future commitment. Should the Company decide to undertake lobbying activities in the future, it undertakes to adopt beforehand a responsible lobbying policy compliant with GACA1.1: lobbying conducted solely to contribute to a positive impact on society or the environment, based on reliable or scientific data, with appropriate governance, oversight and risk management practices. The policy will be approved by the Governing Body and published on the website.

This statement is approved by the Governing Body, as the Company's highest governing body, and is published on www.dorabruschi.it, accessible to all stakeholders.
